Join us for a late summer plein air painting workshop on the beautiful Crystal Coast of North Carolina. Paul will demonstrate how to lay in an accurate portrayal of the landscape while dealing with the quickly changing light. He will also talk to you about the variety of materials and techniques involved in dealing with the natural environment. Each day will start with a lecture / demo, followed by plenty of time for students to work. Students will receive individualized instruction to meet their needs.

ABOUT PAUL KEYSAR

Paul Keysar is known for his classic, representational oil paintings and drawings of landscapes, still lifes, and portraits. He has received numerous awards for his work, including, a Certificate of Excellence from the Portrait Society of America, Best in Show in the Richeson75 Figure/Portrait 2014 Competition, and finalist in The Artist Magazine's 2014 Annual Competition. He has a passion for the land and is intrigued with the interaction of man and nature. "As an artist, I am continually observing life around me. I am fascinated by the effects of light, atmosphere, and weather." He has participated in numerous solo and group shows, and his work is owned by collectors throughout the country. Paul currently resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, with his wife and children, and maintains a studio at ClearWater Artist Studios, in Concord, NC. www.PaulKeysar.com
