with Instructor Paul Keysar

May 30-31, 2015

AFTON MOUNTAIN VINEYARDS, Afton, Virginia

Skill Level: All skill levels

Medium: Demos will be in Oil;
Participants may use oil or acrylic (oil preferred)

Limit: Twelve (12) participants

Cost: $160.00

$140.00 Early Registration
(save $20, register by May 15, 2015)

Schedule: Sat, May 30, 2015 - 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM | Sun, May 31, 2015 - 1:00 to 5:00 PM

This workshop will focus on the beginning to middle stages of a painting. Each day will start with a lecture and demo covering topics such as how to work with your materials, composition (placement of foreground, middle ground, and background), color choices, and more. After the demo, each participant will select a spot, from this beautiful, mountain vineyard setting, and begin painting. Individual instruction and critique will be given during this time to help participants develop a higher understanding of and gain a greater confidence in painting the landscape.

ABOUT PAUL KEYSAR

Paul Keysar is known for his classic, representational oil paintings and drawings of landscapes, still lifes, and portraits. He has received numerous awards for his work, including, a Certificate of Excellence from the Portrait Society of America, Best in Show in the Richeson75 Figure/Portrait 2014 Competition, and finalist in The Artist Magazine's 2014 Annual Competition. He has a passion for the land and is intrigued with the interaction of man and nature. "As an artist, I am continually observing life around me. I am fascinated by the effects of light, atmosphere, and weather." He has participated in numerous solo and group shows, and his work is owned by collectors throughout the country. Paul currently resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, with his wife and children, and maintains a studio at ClearWater Artist Studios, in Concord, NC. www.PaulKeysar.com
